

I strongly oppose relaxing the broadcast ownership rules. I feel the national direction is already set by a few large media conglomerates and the FCC relaxing the broadcast ownership rules will allow these media monopolies to thrive. These money grabbing monsters are poised and hoping to control the vast majority of what we and our children are bombarded with during our waking hours. Allowing them to succeed by relaxing the broadcast ownership rules will accelerate the continued moral and intellectual decline of our economy and our country.